

Starting July 31, people will be required to wear non-medical masks in most indoor public places in Nova Scotia.

Masks will be mandatory in the following indoor public places as of July 31:

- retail businesses
- shopping centres
- personal services businesses, such as hair and nail salons, spas, body art facilities, except during services that require removing a mask
- restaurants and bars, except while people are eating or drinking
- places of worship or faith gatherings (masks can be removed temporarily for ceremonial purposes, such as receiving Communion or a couple during their wedding ceremony)
- places for cultural or entertainment services or activities such as movie theatres, concerts and other performances
- places for sports and recreational activities, such as a gym, pool or indoor tennis facility, except while doing an activity where a mask cannot be worn
- places for events such as conferences and receptions
- municipal or provincial government locations offering services to the public
- common areas of tourist accommodations, such as lobbies, elevators and hallways
- common areas of office buildings such as lobbies, elevators and hallways, but not private offices
- public areas of a university or college campus, such as library or student union building, but not classrooms, labs, offices or residences
- train or bus stations, ferry terminals and airports
